

The airlines are one of the few places in our public society where one can have quiet time, work, or communicate face to face with individuals without the distraction of cell phones. Personally, cell phones have a definite purpose, but to allow them on public aircraft would be disastrous. Can you imagine anything worse than 50-150 conversations in a small enclosed space(all at different noise levels)???

Please be considerate of passengers and BAN this bill.